“ Through revitalizing age old traditions from vernacular Welsh building skills to the art of oral storytelling, this place nurtures an appreciation and respect for our natural and cultural heritage to a young generation that come here from all four corners of the world.. At a time of tremendous global challenges the work at Felin Uchaf reminds us of the truly important things in life.

This is a unique vision and opportunity and worthy of our wholehearted support“

How you can help

You can either donate or pledge towards raising the total of £270,000 needed to buy the award winning center outright for the charity and become a Friend of Felin Uchaf. As a member you'll receive updates of news and special invitations to regular events & performances, discounted course and entry fees and most importantly: you'll be contributing directly towards safeguarding one of the most inspiring social enterprises in Wales

Donations can be made through cheques payable to the 'Menter Y Felin Uchaf Appeal' and posted to the address overleaf.

Pledges can be made through completing and posting the form overleaf. Only when the appeal total has been successfully raised will all your pledges then be collected. please give at the level you can afford

Something remarkable is happening here on the Llŷn Peninsula...

Young people from all over the world are coming to volunteer to help the local community complete a magnificent oak framed boatbuilding training workshop and state of the art eco-visitor centre. The new facilities will also enable more people to learn heritage skills and how to conserve and enhance our environment You too can help and play a vital part in realizing this inspiring project for £100 you receive a 5-year membership and when you give over £1000 your names will be carved into building's the massive oak beams, Gift over £5000 and they will be carved on the first wooden boat to be built at the centre

Every single donation counts.....
